

LUCKY 9

Rules of Play

1. To begin each round, players are required to place a primary game wager. Optionally, players may also place a Bonus 9, Tie, 21+3 Progressive, and/or Suited or Booted wager.
2. Players are dealt two cards face up, while the dealer is dealt one card face up and one card face down.
3. The dealer reconciles the Bonus 9 and the 21+3 Progressive wagers according to their posted paytables.
4. The player now acts on their hand by choosing to either:
 - a. Stand – Receive no further cards
 - b. Hit – Receive a third card (players may only hit once)
 - c. Split any two cards of the same point value.
 - i. A player must make an additional wager equal to the primary wager.
 - ii. The cards are divided into two, one-card hands. One new card will be dealt to each hand. Players cannot hit a split hand, however, may split up to three times for a total of four hands.
5. After all players have acted, the dealer reveals their hole-card and either:
 - a. Draws a third card if their two-card total is 4 or lower.
 - b. Stands with a two-card total of 5 or more.
6. The dealer compares his hand to the player's hand and reconciles the primary and Tie wagers as follows:
 - a. If the player's hand totals 0, 1, or 2 points, the player does not qualify, and the primary wager automatically loses.
 - b. If the player's hand has a greater point value than the dealer, the player's primary wager pays 1 to 1.
 - c. If both the player and dealer have equally valued hands, the primary wager is pushed and the Tie wager pays according to the posted payable.
 - i. If both the player and the dealer have hands totaling 9 points, the hands are reconciled depending on the configured version.

Rules of Play

1. To begin each round, players are required to place a standard base game wager. Optionally, players may also place a 21+3 Progressive wager.
2. The dealer follows house procedures to deal the primary base game.
3. The dealer then follows house procedures to reconcile the 21+3 Progressive wagers. Winning 21+3 Progressive wagers are paid according to the corresponding payable.

The primary game can now be played to completion and/or all other pending wagers can be reconciled.

Rules of Play

1. To begin each round, players are required to place a standard Blackjack wager. Optionally, players may also place a Suited or Booted progressive wager.
2. The dealer follows house procedures to deal the primary Blackjack game.
3. The dealer then follows house procedures to reconcile primary wagers. Note: If a Suited or Booted progressive wager was placed:
 - a. The player's first two cards (and first hit card, if the Suited Wheel award(s) can be achieved) must not be discarded in the event of a busted hand, blackjack, or any other instance where a discard would be typical.
4. The dealer then follows house procedures to reconcile Suited or Booted progressive wagers and pays according to the corresponding payable.
