TIGER NO COMMISSION BACCARAT

SUMMARY:

Tiger No Commission Baccarat is a modification of Nepal Baccarat. Consistent with the base game of Nepal Baccarat there is no commission on a winning “Banker” hand. In Nepal Baccarat and Tiger No Commission Baccarat winning Banker wagers are paid 1 to 2 if the Banker wins on a point total of 6.

The game can use four (4), six (6), eight (8), nine (9), or ten (10) decks. Each deck of cards consists of fifty-two (52) cards.

The rules and payouts are described below:

BASE GAME (NEPAL BACCARAT):

The base game uses the standard Nepal baccarat variant. The payouts are:

- If the patron wagers on the Player and the Player bet wins; the patron is paid 1 to 1.
- If the patron wagers on the Banker and the Banker bet wins:
 - If the Banker Score is six (6) the patron is paid 1 to 2.
 - Other Banker Scores pay 1 to 1.
- If the patron wagers on the Tie and the Tie bet wins; the patron is paid 8 to 1.
- If the patron wagers on the Player or Banker and the Tie bet wins; the wager is pushed.

TIGER PAIR SIDE BET

Tiger Pair is an independent side bet that wins if the first two (2) cards dealt to the Banker or Player respectively are a pair; the patron is paid 4 to 1. If both Banker and Player are dealt a pair that are not identical; the patron is paid 20 to 1. If both Banker and Player are dealt identical pairs (10♠, 10♥, 10♣, and 10♦) the patron is paid 100 to 1.

TIGER SIDE BET

Tiger is an independent side bet that wins if the banker wins with a point total of six (6) with either two (2) or three (3) cards. The payout schedule is as follows:
